

Submission Requirements for Tsinghua University International
Undergraduate Applicants Regarding Nationality Status
Documentation 2027

1. Applicants must meet the application eligibility requirements stipulated in the Admission to Undergraduate Programs of Tsinghua University 2027 (For International Students).

2. If the applicant falls into the following categories:

(1) An applicant who was originally a Chinese citizen but later obtained foreign nationality. The applicant must submit the following documents ①, ②, ③, and ④ before the deadline of the respective batch for each program:

① A valid foreign passport or official documentation proving foreign nationality.

Specific requirements: The period from when the applicant joined or obtained foreign nationality (until April 30 of the enrollment year) has been at least 4 years (inclusive); if the passport was renewed during this 4-year period, all passports held during the period, or the corresponding supporting materials, must be submitted.

② Documents proving that the applicant has resided physically in the foreign country:

Specific requirements: Submit all entry and exit records for the most recent four years (ending on April 30 of the enrollment year). The applicant must have a physical overseas residence of no less than two years. A “year-cycle” is defined as the period from May 1 to April 30 of the following year. Any cycle in which the applicant physically resided overseas for 9 months or longer will be counted as one year toward this requirement, verified by entry and exit stamps.

③ Documents verifying that the applicant no longer holds Chinese nationality.

Documents are listed below according to the applicant’s former household registration location in China:

Situation 1: Previously held household registration in the Chinese mainland:

Submit documents proving the renunciation of the applicant's Chinese nationality (e.g., an electronic scan of the Certificate of Renunciation of Chinese Nationality), together with an electronic scan of the original certificate of household registration cancellation.

Situation 2: Never held household registration in the Chinese mainland: Submit documents proving the renunciation of the applicant's Chinese nationality (e.g., an electronic scan of the Certificate of Renunciation of Chinese Nationality), together with documents confirming that the applicant has never held household registration in the Chinese mainland.

④ The applicant's birth registration (e.g., birth certificate)

(2) Applicants whose parent or parents are Chinese citizens and have settled abroad, who were born abroad, acquired foreign nationality at birth, and have never held Chinese nationality must submit the following documents by the application deadline of the respective batch for each program:

① Documents verifying that the applicant had foreign nationality at birth (such as certificate of nationality at birth, birth registration in the foreign country, etc.).

② Documents verifying that the applicant's Chinese-citizen parent or parents had obtained permanent residence in a foreign country by the time of the applicant's birth.

③ Documents verifying the applicant no longer holds Chinese nationality.

④ Documents verifying that the applicant has resided physically in the foreign country:

Specific requirements: Submit all entry and exit records for the most recent four years (ending on April 30 of the enrollment year). The applicant must have at least two years of physical overseas residence (a "year-cycle" is defined as the period from May 1 to April 30 of the following year. Any year-cycle in which the applicant physically resided overseas for 9 months or longer will be counted as one year toward this requirement, verified by entry and exit stamps).

Note: Applicants under any of the following circumstances shall submit documentation in accordance with Category (1) above:

- ① One or both parents are Chinese citizens, and the applicant was born in China;
- ② One or both parents are Chinese citizens, and the applicant was born abroad but does not meet the conditions specified in Category (2);
- ③ The applicant previously held Chinese nationality but has since relinquished it.
